GIRONA

1st day

We suggest two routes brimming with ideas for discovering the city under your own steam, you decide!

10.00 am

HOUSES ON THE RIVER ONYAR

There are days that you will remember for the rest of your life, like the one that starts with crossing the River Onyar on one of its bridges: the Pont de les Peixateries Velles, designed by Gustave Eiffel in 1827, the Pont de Pedra or the slender Pont d'en Gómez. A route set against the colourful backdrop of the painted facades of the houses looking over the river. Get your camera ready for one of the most powerful and unique images of Girona.

11.00 am

CUL DE LA LLEONA

Every city has its own popular traditions and legends. In Girona we guarantee you'll be back to visit us, as long as you remember to kiss a certain animal on the bottom! The animal in question is a lioness, a sculpture that reproduces the original limestone version, which you will find on your way to the church of Sant Feliu.

1.00 pm

AVANT-GARDE CUISINE

After such an attractive and varied route, stop for a while in the historic quarter and enjoy another local gem, its gastronomy, in one of the city's numerous restaurants. Girona is renowned for its great culinary dynamism, with both classic and modern styles as exemplified by the internationally acclaimed restaurant El Cellar de Can Roca, which holds three Michelin stars and has been named best restaurant in the world twice by Restaurant Magazine.

12.00 am

ARAB BATHS

Continue the route around historic Girona and make a stop at the Arab Baths which, despite the name, is actually a Romanesque construction inspired by Roman baths. Its most outstanding feature is the dome resting on slender columns which covers the central pool.

4:00 pm

SHOPPING

Set aside the afternoon to go shopping in the city, strolling around the Eixample commercial district. Here you will find everything from typical neighbourhood shops to boutiques selling the very latest fashions and prestigious international brands.

7.00 pm

DINNER AND DRINKS IN THE HISTORIC QUARTER

In the evening, when the day is done or is just getting started, relax on one of the terraces in Plaça Independència or Plaça Sant Feliu. Bars and restaurants in unbeatable surroundings.

GIRONA

2nd day

10.00 am

LLEÓ MARKET

Where do most of the products that supply local kitchens in both private homes and bars and restaurants come from? From Lleó market, the distribution centre for fresh produce in Girona. Get there early in the morning and enjoy the colourful stalls filled with fruit and vegetables, meat and fish.

10.30 am

STROLL ALONG THE OLD CITY WALLS

Not far from the market, on the other side of the river, climb up the old city walls to enjoy the best views over the city. Walk along this structure that encloses the historic and monumental centre of Girona, and have your camera ready, because you will want to immortalise each step along this centuries-old construction.

1.00 pm

LOCAL CUISINE

All that walking must have given you an appetite... But before you sit down to lunch in one of the area's many restaurants and cafes, perhaps you'd like to try one of Girona's typical products: the xuixo. A pastry filled with creamy custard that you will find in bakeries and patisseries. Alternatively, if you prefer something less sugary, try a Girona apple, a fruit with its own denomination of origin.

12.00 am

CATHEDRAL

Leave the city walls through the Francesca gardens and walk up to the cathedral, but only if you are willing to do a little exercise! To reach this temple, which boasts the widest Gothic nave in the world, you'll have to climb the 90 steps of the staircase leading up to the main door.

6.00 pm

SOUVENIRS

Complement your first day's purchases with another afternoon of shopping. This time take a look around the historic quarter, where the narrow streets, squares and ramblas are full of exclusive shops and top global brands.

11.00 pm

NIGHTLIFE

After a delicious dinner, such a full day deserves a great ending. You can enjoy another drink while sitting on a terrace or lap up the music and atmosphere of one of the many bars in the centre of Girona.

TOP 10 must-see attractions

Girona, one of the most interesting historic cities in Catalonia, invites visitors to trace its more than 2000 years of history through two fortified enclosures, the Força Vella and the medieval quarter. The Força Vella dates back to the Roman foundation while the medieval extension of the city walls was carried out during the 14th and 15th centuries. The city's numerous monuments preserve some outstanding artistic heritage.

The highlights of Girona are rounded off by the impressive old Jewish Quarter or Call, with its beautiful streets and porticoed squares, with hidden gardens and surprises around every corner, such as the Noucentisme-style buildings by architect Rafael Masó.

legends, festivals AND TRADITIONS

FESTIVALS AND TRADITIONS

In Girona, there are festivals and traditional events happening throughout the year. Some of the most important include the Manaies (Roman legionaries) parade at Easter, the Sant Jordi book and rose fair, the Girona Flower Time exhibition and the festivities in honour of Sant Narcís, the city's patron saint, celebrated around 29 October.

SPRING FESTIVAL, TARLÀ FESTIVAL

George's Day, on 23 April, in Carrer de l'Argenteria. One of the most characteristic and popular features is the presence and evolution of the Tarlà, a figure who turns somersaults on a bar hung over the street. This character is linked to a very old celebration that combined religious devotion with carnival fun.

Manaies Easter

LEGENDS

Legends, traditional stories and anecdotes are popular chronicles of city life. Girona has many of these. Here we highlight two in particular:

THE WITCH OF THE CATHEDRAL

A long, long time ago in Girona there was a woman dedicated to the diabolical art of witchcraft who would throw stones at the cathedral to demonstrate her hatred of religion. One day, by divine powers, the witch was turned into a stone gargoyle and fixed to the highest part of the temple walls so from that moment onwards, rather than expletives and curses, only clean water falling from the clouds would spew from her mouth.

COCOLLONA

It is said that when there is a full moon over the River Onyar, just before dawn, when ghosts become visible, truly sensitive people can see the semi-transparent and blurry spectre of a crocodile with butterfly wings swimming up and down, until it disappears with the first rays of the sun.

How does Girona make you feel?

It fascinates me. I normally go from one place to another, but for me Girona is the only place in the world where strolling around makes perfect sense.

Which place in Girona do you always show to visitors/friends?

After visiting the historic quarter, the icing on the cake is the banks of the River Ter from La Devesa park and the walkway that leads to Fontajau. It is a fantastic natural site in the middle of the city.

What flavour does Girona have?

Thinking of the historic quarter, the taste would be baked apple and bergamot ice cream. Baked apple because it has a warm, mellow heart when you break through the membrane of cold ice cream. The tart, perfumed touch of the bergamot - I once saw a bergamot tree in a courtyard in the historic quarter - represents the bohemian artistic and dreamy quality of its people. The sour taste is us knowing how to laugh at ourselves. In fact, we have an ice lolly, El Cul de la Lleona, flavoured with baked apple and bergamot.

keep calm & GO SHOPPING

Quiet streets, a historic centre with urban labyrinths that invite you to wander around and discover a city full of history and life. Girona is perfect for shopping in a calm and relaxing way. In the historic quarter you will find a wide range of traditional and family shops and businesses, as well as exclusive, designer and original boutiques. But shopping in Girona extends outside the historic centre too: take a stroll and shop calmly in the Eixample area or try the Santa Eugènia district with its weekly market, or the Sant Narcís district, whose art and music market is a real gem.

How does Girona make you feel?

Whenever I return to Girona I always have the same sensation: I feel at home and I love wandering around in the narrow streets of the historic quarter. I am in love with Girona.

Which place in Girona do you always show to visitors?

I never get tired of crossing the Pont de Pedra bridge. It is a spot I always recommend and take the opportunity to revisit when I am showing off my city. In addition, the view of the houses on the Onyar from the bridge is also spectacular.

Why do you think that Girona attracts sportspeople?

Apart from being a very welcoming city, with its own special charm, it also has the advantage that you can get around it quickly and easily. Professional sportspeople can also find a unique natural setting here, very close to the sea and the mountains.

ACCESSIBLE CITY for all

We strive to make Girona an inclusive city for everyone, residents and visitors alike. A city that is prepared for you to enjoy it, whatever your physical condition. Without barriers. This has been made possible through the concerted efforts of the local administration and private organisations whose goal is to guarantee the accessibility of Girona's main tourist resources and services.

Download the guide - APP with all the routes and videos.

CONFERENCES with character

There are many cities in the world capable of hosting conferences, but only Girona can do it with such flair. With its unique and singular venues, such as the courtyard of the Jewish History Museum or the foyer of the Municipal Theatre, which, due to their location in the city's historic quarter, add a rather distinctive touch to any event.

Extraordinary spaces that are transformed to hold gala dinners, cocktail parties and other exclusive events that make any conference a special and memorable experience.

And most importantly, all of this is located just a short walk away, allowing you to get around without needing a vehicle.

Què t'inspira Girona?

It gives me a sense of tranquillity and the feeling that everything is close and easy. In Girona everything you need is quick and accessible. It is a medium-sized city, but with nothing to envy about the world's big metropolises. And, it is surrounded by amazing natural spaces just a few kilometres away.

Which place in Girona do you always show to visitors?

I invite them to cross any of the bridges over the Onyar and admire the colours of the houses which follow the course of the river on one side and the other from the Pont de Pedra bridge towards the north. And, above all, I recommend that they do so at sunset, when you can appreciate the changing colour of the facades.

You have organised and taken part in conferences in the city. Why should we choose Girona?

Girona is a city on a human scale, but with all the attractions and infrastructure of big cities. Holding a conference or congress in Girona, with its first class conference centre, in a historic city like this one and avoiding all the crowds, is a real luxury and it brings added value. These are days for congress work, but also for disconnecting and having meetings outside; for this reason, the setting is key.

many reasons FOR HOLDING A CONFERENCE IN GIRONA

1 Global tourism recognition

Girona is one of the cities with most personality in Catalonia. This has been recognised by some prestigious international magazines and travel guides, such as Frommer's, National Geographic magazine, The Guardian newspaper and the web portal TripAdvisor.

2 Ancient historic city

Discovering the charms of this city with 2000 years of history is an experience you won't forget in a hurry. Its narrow cobbled streets will transport you to another time.

3 Unbeatable geographical location

A high-speed train connects Girona with Barcelona in 37 minutes, with Madrid in 3.5 hours and with Paris in 5.5 hours. The airport, just 15 minutes from the centre, links the city with more than 20 international destinations.

4 Varied landscapes

Girona is the capital of the Costa Brava, a coastline dotted with spectacular coves with crystalline water. In addition, just one hour away by car we have the Pyrenees, with a historic legacy of hermitages and churches, and some of the country's best ski resorts.

5 Unique cuisine

Girona is one of the world's most important gastronomic zones. There are more than 20 Michelin stars spread across the region, and it is also home to one of the best restaurants in the world according to Restaurant Magazine: El Celler de Can Roca.

6 Quality accommodation

Most of the 1100 hotel rooms available in the city and immediately surrounding area are within 10 minutes' walk from the Conference Centre.

7 Girona Conference Centre

With three auditoriums and 13 parallel rooms with natural light, the centre has the capacity to host up to 1800 people. The building is complemented by a large exhibition area and several spaces adapted to provide meals.

8 Extensive experience

Sectors as important and strategic as healthcare, science and business have placed their trust in the Girona City Convention Bureau (GCCB) to offer advice and planning assistance for their congresses and conferences.

9 Excellent hospitality and a warm welcome

The team at the GCCB do their utmost to satisfy all their clients' needs. The resulting high quality is demonstrated by the post-conference surveys carried out in which the average satisfaction rating is 9.7.

AFTER WORK

like the locals

What do the locals do when they finish their daily routines? Where do they go? How do they live and see the city? Here are a few suggestions to help you move around the city like a genuine insider.

- Stroll around the historic quarter and La Rambla eating an ice cream.
- Wander the streets of the centre and discover original shops hidden away in the stone labyrinths.
- Relax with a drink on one of the terraces in the historic quarter or admiring the views from a hotel rooftop.
- Learn all about authentic Catalan gastronomy with a show cooking workshop.
- Go running around this ancient city's most emblematic areas.
- Experience the night in the most vibrant bars and clubs, whether enjoying a concert or dancing to the latest music.
